Networking Opportunities 2019-2020

August — DE State Conference On Volunteerism

This annual event will have speakers from various aspects of the field. DAVA Event Supporter Dover Downs, Dover, DE

October — The Annual Alive Web Conference

The Alive Conference is a wonderful networking and learning opportunity from International leaders in the field.

Bayhealth, Sussex Campus, Milford, DE

December — Recognition: Panel Discussion

Join a panel of Volunteer Administrators to discuss how recognitions have changed based on changing volunteers, different budget ideas and more.

Buena Vista New Castle, DE

February — Surveys

Leader in the Volunteer Management field, Beth Steinhorn will focus on how to create surveys that provide you insight into how volunteers view your program as well as how to use this information to retain current volunteers. Online

March — Body Language

Back by popular demand! Jennifer Clements will speak about the importance of Body Language when interviewing prospective volunteers. Children's Beach House, Lewes, DE

April — Advocating to the Board

We all know volunteering is more than numbers. This session will focus on how to show the importance of your program and advocate on your volunteers' behalf.

Blood Bank, Newark, DE and Online

June — Impact

Join DAVA for lunch and well-known Volunteer Management Expert Sheri Wilensky-Burke on how to demonstrate to your executives how volunteers impact your organization. This is a wonderful follow-up to April's session. Roma's Restaurant, Dover, DE
